

I am very concerned about the request by the CBA to use the "established business exemption" to avoid the Indiana DO NOT CALL lists. These banks are large enough to have some business with a large proportion of households in the state. I do not do any business over the phone and I object to telephone solicitation.